

presents the

SYMPOSIUM

REDUCING RACIAL DISPROPORTIONALITY IN CHILD WELFARE

Disproportionality has long been a problem in the child welfare system. Researchers, advocates and policy makers are focusing their attention on raising awareness of disproportionality, investigating reasons for it, and taking steps to eradicate it in the child welfare system.

WHEN: December 13²⁰¹⁰ Monday
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Embassy Suites Hotel - Columbus Airport
2886 Airport Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43219

WHO: Joyce James

Texas Child Welfare Consultant

Dr. Carol Spigner

Emerita Associate Professor/Clinician Educator
University of Pennsylvania School of Social Policy and Practice

Honorable Judge

Patricia Clark

King County Washington Superior Court Judge

RSVP: Please contact Julia Bourdeau at:
Julia.Bourdeau@jfs.ohio.gov or fax (614) 466-4359

We are encouraging participation from all public and private child and family servicing agencies, community advocates and stakeholders, court personnel, academics, and all others with an interest in this important and complex subject.