

Workforce Development, Pathways Program
1331 Edgehill Rd
Columbus, OH 43212

Welcome to the Pathways Program at Goodwill Columbus at the Battelle Career Education Center located at 1331 Edgehill Road, Columbus, OH 43212!

How would you like to participate in an exciting program that can lead to you working in a job of your choice? Goodwill Columbus is proud to present a program to provide each jobseeker with the necessary skills to succeed at work. You will discover in the Pathways Program new and innovative curriculum that will help jobseekers learn expectations of the contemporary workplace and provide tools needed to succeed at work.

Our team is ready to accept referrals from jobseekers that have an open Franklin County Child Support case.

We are seeking jobseekers that are willing/motivated to participate in intense FREE programming that will result in increased income through employment. Interested jobseekers can be both unemployed and underemployed and may be participating in other Goodwill Columbus Workforce Development programs.

Free Services through the Pathways Program include:

- Computer Basics
- Work Readiness
- Access to Computer Resource Room
- Financial Literacy
- Job Seeking Assistance
- One-on-One Job Development
- Job Coaching/Mentoring
- Employment Retention follow-up
- Peer Support Meetings
- Case Management

After successfully completing the Pathways Program, jobseekers are invited to attend a formal graduation ceremony and reception at Goodwill Columbus.

For further information about this exciting program and referrals to the Pathways Program please call 614-583-0108 to speak with Hagar Collier, Rehabilitation Services Specialist, Option 1 or Marti Smith, Employment Services Specialist, Option 2.

Thank you and we look forward to hearing from you soon!
