

Summit County
CHILDREN SERVICES
Building Families . . . Building Futures

Shawn Crable is a 2003 graduate of Washington High School in Massillon. From 2003 to 2008, Shawn was a member of the University of Michigan football team and is a four-year letterman under Coach Lloyd Carr. He graduated in 2013 with a degree in General Studies. Shawn is currently enrolled in the Master of Organizational Leadership at the University of Malone.

Shawn was drafted by the New England Patriots in 2008. After four years with the NFL, Shawn became the Defensive line coach at Massillon High School. In addition, he also worked at Northwestern Mutual and Alcoa Aluminum.

Following his time at Alcoa, Shawn became the Supervisor of Parent Engagement and Outreach at the Early Childhood Resource Center in Canton. He has spent the last six years as an active member of the Stark County Fatherhood Coalition working diligently throughout the community to provide services and support to low-income families. Shawn is married, has six children and enjoys being a coach, mentor and advocate for males in Stark and Summit County.